

SC Whitmore School Graduation Highlights 2018

“Good morning and welcome to the 2018 SC Whitmore School graduation ceremony. Today is about you, the graduates of 2018. Your hard work and dedication has made this day possible for you to walk across the stage and receive your high school diploma.” - Principal, John Loveday

“School my way means you do it on your own time. You have the opportunity to get ahead of your work so you can be able to have extracurricular activities.” - Xzavier, Class of 2018

“For me, it was my family traveled a lot last year so I was able to do school at my own pace and because regular school was too slow for me it helped be able to learn, but not be frustrated by not learning enough.” - Hope, Class of 2018

“Your path to greatness didn’t look like everyone else, but you are uniquely made with a set of skills and gifts that will help you navigate your experiences through life.” - Shennice Cleckley, Guest Speaker

“For me, being a young mom, I can do school whenever I want to basically. I can start whenever I want, finish whenever I want, take breaks whenever I need to and go at my own pace.” - Tara, Class of 2018

“My way, is when I can ask for help and I won’t have to worry about teachers not giving me the help that I need or the help that I want.” - Amajei, Class of 2018

“Always remember that you are not the sum-total of your experiences. A theme that you will hear is that they help shape you and mold you. What dreams do is dreams help you propel to something bigger. It helps you get out of that space of being mediocre to going to greatness.” - Shennice Cleckley, Guest Speaker

“I feel like I accomplished something great in my life because I’m graduating a year early. I was supposed to graduate next year.” - Kevin, Class of 2018

“This school let me finish school really fast. I was able to get a job earlier. I wasn’t tied up with school or anything.” - Shikuro, Class of 2018

“I started my own online business. When I went to a brick-and-mortar school I didn’t have many sales. I had to struggle with my business because I didn’t have time to manage it and now with online school I have more time to manage it.” - Kevin, Class of 2018

“If you have a unique home life or you’re traveling a lot or regular school just isn’t right for you it’s a really good option.” - Hope, Class of 2018

“Go for it. It’s great. The teachers are nice. The guidance counselors are super helpful. Literally, at the snap of your finger they will help you and so I recommend it a lot.” - Tara, Class of 2018

“Dream big. The bigger the better. Congratulations” - Shennice Cleckley, Guest Speaker
