

Danielle Williams, Class of 2021

In person school wasn't giving me that challenge that Whitmore do, and it helps me a lot become self-discipline.

Making sure you get your work done, making sure you get any missing assignments done on your time, but making sure that is prompt. No procrastination or anything even if you do decide to procrastinate you can still get it done on time.