“Welcome to the 2021 South Carolina Whitmore School graduation ceremony. We are always proud of our graduates and our seniors every single year, but this year is a little extra special. You all showed resiliency this past year and year-and-a-half and I am sure that your resiliency will serve you well in life no matter where you go from here.” - SCWS Executive Director, John Loveday

“In person school wasn’t giving me that challenge that Whitmore do, and it helps me a lot become self-discipline.” - Danielle Williams, Class of 2021

“Just being able to learn in your own environment and SC Whitmore just provided me with a lot of individualism that I would not have had. I was able to work from home. It is a lot easier for me to learn when I have one on one interaction with my teacher's.” - Alyssa Terrel, Class of 2021

“Definitely do it, definitely do it. It's been the greatest experience I've ever been able to go through. It has helped me a lot and I've definitely recommended it to all of my friends that have transferred and they all said they love it.” - Blythe Rawlings, Class of 2021

“SC Whitmore provided an opportunity for my child who has some medical challenges to be able to attend a school that didn't require her to be in person from 9 to 4 every day because that really wasn't possible with her health.” - Robin Curtis, SCWS Parent of 2021 Graduate

“Congratulations everybody, we all graduated from high school and that is an amazing accomplishment.” - Caroline Brooks, Class of 2021

“Find what sets your soul on fire, what challenges you in a way that makes you want nothing more than to be better and chase after it with every single thing you have. I promise you that it will make every single hard day worth it.” - Sarah Fox, Class of 2021

“This is the next step in your bright futures. It's the beginning of new opportunities and a lifetime of growth. You have demonstrated through your achievements and excellence at a high-level. You stayed the course, you engaged, and you pushed yourself to new heights. Culminating and becoming a well-rounded scholar, a responsible citizen and a high school graduate. But don't let this be the end of your journey, no this is just the beginning. You are our future.” - Chris Neeley, South Carolina Public Charter School Superintendent

“Criminal justice.” - Blythe Rawlings, Class of 2021

“Business operations.” - James Roets, Class of 2021

“Aesthetics.” - Alyssa Terrel, Class of 2021

“Exercise science.” - Devin Soriano, Class of 2021

“RN.” - Danielle Williams, Class of 2021

“And I offer my sincere congratulations and now graduates please rise. It is time to move your tassels from the right side to the left side to signify your graduation. I confer upon each of you your high school diploma.” - Shennice Cleckley, SCWS Board Chair

“Congratulations Class of 2021.” - Eboné Adams, SCWS Director of Student Services
